

Honors Courses Spring 2010

The Honors Program at San Jacinto College offers academically talented and highly motivated students special opportunities for enriched learning, recognition, and personal growth. The program combines a stimulating range and depth of scholarly pursuits with an interdisciplinary approach to learning. Benefits of the Honors Program include smaller class sizes, scholarship and travel opportunities, individual attention, and special activities and events.

For more information on the program, admissions criteria and to receive a handbook of guidelines, please contact the Honors Program Coordinator at your primary campus.
