

Understanding of Clinical and Theory Assignment

I, _____, have read and understand that I am restricted from registering for all RNSG courses, whether they be theory or clinical until I have received my assigned course list, which will be posted on Blackboard.

I, _____, also have read and understand that clinical assignments are subject to change without regard to transportation, child care or employment (all clinical assignments are tentative until clinical orientation has been completed). The only consideration will be for documented course conflict.
